

Coverage of the EPO's bibliographic data (DOCDB) on a world map

The map shows the coverage of the EPO's bibliographic data database (DOCDB) in 2020. The colours indicate how up to date the data is.

More comprehensive coverage information on the EPO's databases is available on: www.epo.org/searching-for-patents/data/coverage/weekly.html

 Most recent data is less than six months old
 Most recent data is more than six months but less than two years old
 Data is available but is not complete or recent

The image is based on a snapshot of the database taken at the end of 2020. Regional authorities, such as the EPO and WIPO, are not indicated on the map. Authorities which no longer exist are not shown.
