IPC-Intellectual Property Consulting
Legal & Regulatory Affairs Division

B-Circle, Clos des trois couleurs, 2B, 1150 Bruxelles, Belgium

Dear Sir/Madam,

We hereby notify you regarding the administrative requirements associated with your European Patent Application, filed with the EPO - European Patent Office under the following details:

- Publication Date: [REDACTED]
- Application Number: [REDACTED]
- Date of Filing: [REDACTED]
- Number of Patent Document: [REDACTED]*
- International Patent Classification [REDACTED]
- Title of the Invention: [REDACTED]

This application is listed in the official EPO - European Patent Office Register of European Patents.

Following the formal filing and publication of your application, the IPC - Intellectual Property Consulting initiated the activation procedure of the Administrative Protection Framework.

This framework forms part of an independently administered, EU-aligned support service designed to:

- ensure continuity of administrative safeguarding throughout the patent application lifecycle
- monitor the procedural status, examination progress, and publication stages
- support administrative enforceability during search, examination, and validation
- maintain alignment within the European Patent Network and international patent procedures (PCT/EPC)

Required Action

We kindly advise completing the payment within the stated timeframe should you wish to maintain administrative safeguarding throughout your European patent application process.

Should you require clarification or administrative assistance, please contact the Legal & Regulatory Affairs Division of the IPC - Intellectual Property Consulting.

Yours sincerely,

Office of the Finance Director
IPC - Intellectual Property Consulting
